

National Professional Qualification for Middle Leadership (NPQML)

Qualification Specification

NPQ accredited by

Department for Education

About NPQML

The National Professional Qualification for Middle Leadership (NPQML) is accredited by the UK Department for Education (DfE). The qualification is delivered by Best Practice Network, a provider of UK accredited qualifications for education professionals worldwide, with a mission to help every child access an excellent education.

Entry requirements

NPQML is for those who are, or are aspiring to become, a middle leader with responsibility for leading a team such as a key stage leader, a curriculum area leader, a pastoral services leader, a subject leader or a head of department. This includes those who are, or are aspiring to become, middle leaders with cross-school responsibilities.

In order to be accepted onto the qualification candidates must have their application endorsed by their Headteacher via a signed Headteacher declaration that is uploaded as part of the candidate's application.

Benefits for candidates

- Improved outcomes for pupils in candidate areas of responsibility
- Increased capability and capacity to take on a leadership role – having the skills, knowledge and understanding to do the job more effectively
- Transferable qualification for leaders relocating to UK schools
- Contextualised to the needs of the international schools workforce and underpinned by robust evidence and expertise
- Masters credits towards an MA in Educational Leadership

Benefits for schools

- Support the succession of school leaders and build cohesive, effective teams
- Evidence-based sustainable school improvement undertaken to improve pupil progress and team capability
- A professionally aware and informed leader who can make evidence-based decisions and approach new challenges in an effective and efficient manner

Qualification delivery

Distance learning

Candidates for whom time away from school or access to local delivery is not available have the opportunity to complete the qualification via a distance learning model. With distance learning, the three event days are each delivered flexibly over the course of two weeks through a combination of online briefings and candidate activity. Distance learning candidates benefit from additional support from their personal tutor, and their live events are scheduled according to time zone.

Whole-school training

If a school, or schools cluster, have a number of staff wishing to access training then the qualification can be delivered in-house saving release costs and delivering content tailored to meet local context and scheduled according to local requirement.

Regional Training Centres

We have a number of school-led training centres located across the globe. Candidates located within a convenient distance can access the qualifications delivered face-to-face at any of these centres.

Assessment

Leading an improvement project (4,500 words)

Candidates must lead an improvement project within their team, lasting at least two-terms, to a) improve pupil progress and attainment b) the capability of their team. A written account of the project covering the design, implementation and evaluation must then be submitted for assessment.

Project scripts and supporting evidence are assessed in accordance with a mark scheme provided by the DfE and are subject to national moderation.
